

Biography

Ani Filipova

Former Regional Chief Operating Officer,
Treasury and Trade Solutions, Citibank Asia Pacific

Ani Filipova is an International banking executive with more than 25 years of banking experience. Forward-looking with an entrepreneurial mind focusing on digital transformation, innovation, and culture. Adept in handling multi-cultural, multi-ethnic, and multi-generational environments working with people across all disciplines and at all levels throughout the organization. Till April 2021, Ani was the Regional Chief Operating Officer for Citibank Treasury and Trade Solutions in Asia. She has been with Citi for 21 years working in Bulgaria, London, Singapore, and Hong Kong, where she has held roles spanning product and relationship management, operations, and audit. Initially, she joined as a founding member of Citi Bulgaria in 2000 and was the Global Transaction Services Head for the first five years of the franchise. Ani joined Citi from Raiffeisenbank, where she held various leadership roles in both Bulgaria and Romania in operations and branch network management.

Ani holds a Master's degree in Finance and Credit from the University of National and World Economy, Bulgaria.

In April 2021, Ani decided to take time off her career and focus on:

- Supporting university graduates and young professionals to find their career path
- Developing further as a lecturer, writer, and speaker
- Building a portfolio of investments and Non-Exec Board roles to support entrepreneurs in digitization, transformation, and ESG.

Ani is now based in Athens; she is married and has 12-year-old twins – Lili and Peter. She is an avid reader, traveler, skier, and sailor. Ani cares deeply about the environment and is passionate about developing awareness and influencing people to reduce their negative impact on the environment.